EveryOne Home invites you to join in the holiday spirit at a free screening of Where God Left His Shoes starring John Leguizamo. The film is the story of a family that refuses to break apart during the darkest time of their lives (on Christmas Eve) and discovers that they will survive as long as they have each other.

Be moved by this family's plight, and be moved to action. Learn how together we can end homelessness in Alameda County by the year 2020.

This community gathering will be held at the beautiful Grand Lake Theatre in Oakland and is hosted by EveryOne Home, the organization leading the County's coordinated effort to end homelessness.

We CAN end homelessness with EveryOne Home.

The film is not rated.
Recommended age of children viewing this film is 10 years of age and older.
